

The Loudoun Laurels Scholarship Application

Deadline to Submit is April 17th at 11:59pm, 2020

Loudoun Laurels Scholarships are awarded to a select group of Loudoun County Public Schools seniors who participate in either the AVID or CAMPUS programs. Successful awardees demonstrate the ideals of the Loudoun Laurels: Commitment to Community and Leadership by Example.

Scholarships are $10,000 per year, renewable for up to four years (total award not to exceed $40,000). Scholarships are to be used solely for tuition and tuition-related fees at a Virginia college or university, or a Virginia community college (if the recipient is part of a program guaranteeing admissions to a 4-year degree-granting institution).

Scholarships will be renewed annually on the basis of acceptable academic performance. Scholarship winners must provide bi-annual progress reports to Loudoun Laurels.

Recommendations

Please ask two people to submit a letter of recommendation on your behalf, describing why you would be a worthy recipient of a Loudoun Laurels Scholarship.

One recommendation must be from your AVID Teacher or CAMPUS Facilitator or CAMPUS Counselor. The second recommendation should be from a teacher, counselor, or an "outside" adult (non-relative). Examples of an outside adult for your Recommendation #2 include a supervisor at work, a leader in a non-profit, or other organization in which you participate or volunteer. Please provide each of your recommenders with the instruction letter found on page 6 of this application.
